Avril Lavigne, Like Two Rivers Flow

Two Rivers Rains of sand slip through your hands Never ceasing time Fold your hands in silent prayer Eternal peace you'll find (CHORÚS) Like two rivers flow to the open sea Someday we'll reunite for all eternity Let the rain falling on your face Run in to your eyes Can you see the rainbow now Through the stormy skies (CHORUS) Like two rivers flow to the open sea Someday we'll reunite for all eternity Like two rivers flow to the open sea Someday we'll reunite for all eternity Standing in the rising tide Heaven's light shines on you On you, on you Test the sea rising at your feet How far can you go Til you need God's helping hand To ride the under-toe (CHORUS) Like two rivers flow to the open sea Someday we'll reunite for all eternity Someday we'll reunite for all eternity Someday we'll reunite for all eternity
