

AxeWound, Cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

Pain at affliction
I'm gonna faint to pose you and your apathy
Fear, the frustration
You give me nothing to take back all your sympathy
Break, this is carnage
Destroying all my shit with all my dignity
Sex, 'cause your backbone
Is more addicted to pain because it's kissable

You can't kill me motherfucker
You can't harm me motherfucker

This is a matter of pride
I'm not satisfied

You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

Stop your complaining
So sick of hearing your shit so think I'm sick of it
Pain, is it faded?
I'm gonna beat you down and take a piss on you

You can't kill me motherfucker
You can't harm me motherfucker

This is a matter of pride
I'm not satisfied

You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near, you leave me...

Oh!, Oh!, Oh!, Oh!

You can't kill me motherfucker
You can't harm me motherfucker

This is a matter of pride
I'm not satisfied

You can't kill me!

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold

I wanna speak but can't describe
I wanna see through your disguise
'Cause everytime you're near
You leave me cold
