

Axwell & Ingrosso, Dancing Alone (ft. RØMANS)

she's shining in a sea of people see her smiling something about her body caught my eyes and I can't seem to look away she's floating bumping into strangers like they're nothing acting like she know she's hiding something I can't take my eyes away it's like I've seen her face before I know but I don't know for sure my friends ain't with me anymore I've gotta know

why she dancing alone
why she dancing alone?
did she come on her own
seem so loest
so why does she keep on dancing dancing alone

why she dancing alone?

she's hiding
I'm looking for her everywhere I'm trying to spot her like a pin drop in the silence I can't let her get away someone's behind me

we go back to back and we're colliding suddenly I turned around and right there she's staring back at me

I know but I don't know for sure
my friends ain't with me anymore
I've gotta know

why she dancing alone?
dancing alone

why she dancing alone?
