

Ayria, Infiltrating My Way Through The System

Someone told me you should never trust a desperate man
Keep your head straight with your eyes on the final prize
Don't lose the focus now
Fighting forward
There will always be the ones who question everything
I've always noticed
There's nothing bigger than all of the little things

It's what I'm waiting for
I've never wanted more

There's no telling just what we could do
Just have to get through this
I don't know what they want me to see
I just know that they don't see me
I'm concealed, silent threat too
I'm infiltrating through

I'm pushing through all sides
I've swallowed my pride
Just to be the one
Unchanged by the tides
With my final breath
I'll open my eyes
Made my way through a system that's left me to die

Crawling under, undetected by the ones who protect everything
A search for power but if you want to be like them you'll have to emulate
Finding a way through to the core and the center of everything
Imperfect system
I don't know what I strive to be in this pointless place

But I am waiting for something that gives me more

Infiltrating through the system
Not enough just to survive
Walking on the edge of nothing
Getting burned to feel alive
