

Babylon Whores, Emerald Green

Darling
There is an angel
To teach you see
With the eyes of Emerald Green

For darling
All love is witchery
God forsaken deviltry
To draw our blood
For all world to drink

And love will come
And love will go
Oh suffer not a wish to live
For you can't follow

And darling
There is an angel
To teach you wisdom of all Heaven
The pride of all Hell

For darling
All knowledge comes with pain
And all things are still the same
No matter what their name

And if nothing is true
More or less
The only truth must be Nothingness

[The call of the 2nd & 3rd Aethyr by Fr. Perdurabo]

And darling
Be sure of the Devil
Be wary of knots
Tied as a ladder
Under a hill

For darling
There is an angel
To teach you see
With the eyes of Emerald Green
