Babys, The, Silver Dreams

Babys, The Broken Heart Silver Dreams For the last year I've been searching I needed something to believe I'm a gambler With my fortune Trying to keep you up my sleeve When i'm away I fill my heart with Dreams I lose myself Keep my silver dreams of you Are you lonely Are you crying Are your tears for me When i come home And i touch you What will our eyes see? For the next year I'll be traveling Roads that take you far from me Time can take love

Time can fade love

I hope that you'll remember me

When i'm away I fill my heart with

Dreams

I lose myself

Keep my silver dreams of you

I lose myself dreaming silver dreams I lose myself dreaming silver dreams

Silver dreams Silver dreams

Ahh...
