

Babyshambles, Dirty Fame

She loved me for love and she loved me for love

She loved me for love, eh love

Now she's gone

Loved me for love

Loved me for love

She loved me for love alone

And she's all gone

Said no, she loved me not for wealth

For money had I none

She loved me not for music

I could not play a single song and

She loved me not for beauty

You know, I have a crooked smile

She loved me not for strength

I laid right down and sighed
