Baccara, For You

For you, for only you Id like to do so much Id need a lifetime. Time and space will end dear And then surrender to me for you.

With you, with only you You know its true I wont survive without you. When Im on my own some I feel so lonesome and long for you.

(Refrain):

Maybe Im only a little lonely, Maybe Im yearning too much for your touch. Maybe Im mental, so sentimental, Maybe illusions, confusions of love.

For me, for only me Youll always be the one I owe my dreams to. Ill be always there for And always care for, only for you.
