

Backstreet Boys, In Pieces

So, I lie awake another hour
(Just like the one before)
The shadows play a game with my head
(I can't take this anymore)
I hear the sound of my own breathing
It makes me miss you more
Wake me up when it's over after the ending
When the damage has all been done
I don't wanna be somewhere
Where you can watch me as I bleed
Just leave me here in pieces, in pieces
I can't take the chance of running into
(You running into me)
So lock the door and close the window
(I just wanna see)
Until the day inside my future
When I'll be on my feet
Wake me up when it's over after the ending
When the damage has all been done
(The damage is done)
I don't wanna be somewhere
Where you can watch me as I bleed
Just leave me here in pieces, in pieces
If you want you can find me
On the dark side of the sun
Babe, I don't wanna see what we've become
The damage has all been done
Wake me up when it's over after the ending
(Wake me up when it's over)
When the damage has all been done
(The damage is done)
I don't wanna be somewhere
(I don't wanna be somewhere)
Where you can watch me as I bleed
(Where you feel me bleeding
Just leave me here in pieces)
Just leave me in pieces
(In pieces)
Just leave me in pieces
(Wake me up when it's over)
In pieces
(Just wake me up when it's over)
