

Bad Brains, Regulator

You tell me what to say and when to say it.
you tell me what to do and how to do it.
And if I ask you why, youu'll arrest me.
And if I call you lie, you'll detest me.
You control what I'll be, you control who I see.
And if I let you you'll control me.
You're the man who owns all the keys to the stores.
You're the man who always wants so much more.
You're the regulator.
