

Bakun, Just Dance

go and just dance
go just dance
go just dance
game of romance
game of romance
Why don't you go and just dance
go just dance
go just dance
like it's game of romance
game of romance
game of romance
What don't you go just just
What don't you go just

there's no sleeping in our town when we light it up
go and tell them
right now
we will start it up
I can feel something new it's such a feeling

Everyone's having fun
in a spatial way
when I feel that I'm dine I will never say it
I will sing it for you
I will sing it!
