

Balligomingo, Falling

Open my eyes
Open my eyes and see you lying beside me
Touch your lips
Touch your lips to mine you're touching me inside

Lightning flashes, river swells
And I'm crashing to the ground
Feels like I'm walking through the sand
Water seeping through my veins

I feel just like a child
When I'm in your arms

Falling fast and deep
Falling into heat
Falling to my knees
Falling free

Open my heart
Open my heart and mind
Let you embrace me
Dawn is waking
A new day rising
Sunlight touching my skin

And I want to be strong
Cause I want you in my life
Feels like I'm floating through open air
You're flames seeping through me

Falling fast and deep
Falling into heat
Falling to my knees
Falling free
