

Balzac, Girl From Horrorwood

Satanic screaming, satanic...
Horrorwood looms before me
Trembling in horrorwood
My shadow darker than the night
I give to you my sinful heart
To make my shadow turn bright
Satanic screaming, satanic
Horrorwood looms before me

Black, green, brown sand color
Before you start to scream out
Black, green, brown wave color
Before you start to cry out

Why'd you take me to horrorwood?
Phantom on your back's getting you down
My shadow engulfs horrorwood
Drown the phantom in our midnight lake... (x2)
