Shadow

Gettin so weak

And i wish u understood

How u make me feel

Cuz right now i don't feel real

And you don't even listen

To the words that i speak

And the thoughts that i'm havin r gettin me really freaked

And the tears in my eyes

Fall like rain from the sky

Like the planets unlined

And your questioning why

I don't get the point

It just makes no sense

I thought it was the beginning

Have I reached the end

I'm hiding from my friends

How could they understand me

When they do not know me

They can't show me

How to live my life

What is wrong from right

But then again

Who am i

Look back the days

When i tried so hard

Just to fit in

The way i am feeling

Where do i begin
