

Bambix, Flippin, Usa

Now there's this girl, on the other side of the ocean
She's into poetry in motion
Doing all kinds of drugs
They keep her running, moving forward
Now stepping backward, only go on
Till they're gone and she's all lost
She is cool, but a fool
Doing anything, doesn't follow rules
And there's no connection
She's feeling lost, feeling blue
Feeling anyway you wanther to
And there's no way out
And she's never been out of town
Cuz that would only bring her down
And she only wants to stay up high
She is cool, but a fool
Doing anything, doesn't follow rules
And there's no way out
