

Bananarama, Ain't No Cure

The story's the same
Only the names have been changed
When he broke your heart you said
You'll never love again

But you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt
Just like before

Cos' there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

Don't think it over
It's only just begun
Learning to love again
Is half the battle won

But don't believe
They'll ever be Immunity

Cos' there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

Cos' there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

But you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt
Just like before

Cos' there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
