

Bananarama, Aint No Cure

The story's the same
Only the names have been changed
When he broke your heart you said
You'll never love again
But you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt just like before
'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
Don't think it over
It's only just begun
Learning to love again
Is half the battle won
But don't believe
They'll ever be, immunity
'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
But you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt just like before
'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
