Bananarama, Every Shade Of Blue

Every shade of blue I see when you're away from me
Thinkin' about you, oh oh, thinkin' about you
I have the saddest feelin' deep inside
Don't think that I will hear from you tonight
Now the moon lights up, I know the stars will shine
But I can't escape the way I feel inside
Every shade of blue I see when you're away from me
Thinkin' about you, oh oh, thinkin' about you
Every shade of blue I cry 'til the colors all run dry
When I'm without you, oh oh, when I'm without you
Alone in the darkness, I can dream of you
Always the daylight comes around too soon
And the night goes on, feels like it never ends
I keep holdin' on 'til you come back again'
Every shade of blue I see when you're away from me
Thinkin' about you, oh oh, thinkin' about you
Every shade of blue I cry 'til the colors all run dry
When I'm without you, oh oh, when I'm without you
Blue, blue
Every shade of blue I see when you're away from me
Thinkin' about you, oh oh, thinkin' about you
Every shade of blue I cry 'til the colors all run dry
When I'm without you, oh oh, when I'm without you
Every shade of blue
