

Bananarama, Sleep

My lover, my angel
Each time you layed with me
Falling from your lips
With each kiss
You're betraying me

Don't tell me you made me
You played me for a fool
Lies come tumbling down now
Like a waterfall
Over me

Like a heaven without the stars, yeah
I don't know why you broke my heart

Just send me to sleep
I just wanna dream
Don't wanna believe
This is happening to me
Just send me to sleep
For eternity
Yeah
'Cause I don't wanna be here alone
No

So silent, so sweetly
You played your game with me
Slowly suffocating
Love was fading

I couldn't breathe

Beloved
Unfaithfull
No words are left to speak
Crossed unholy water
You can't alter
Your fate, yeah

Summer kisses fade away, yeah
I'm left standing in the rain

Just send me to sleep
I just wanna dream
Don't wanna believe
This is happening to me
Just send me to sleep
For eternity
Yeah
'Cause I don't wanna be here alone

Just send me to sleep
I just wanna dream
Don't wanna believe
Just send me to sleep
For eternity
Yeah
'Cause I don't wanna be here alone

Just send me to sleep
I just wanna dream

Don't wanna believe
Just send me to sleep
For eternity
Yeah
'Cause I don't wanna be here alone
