

Bananarama, Your Love It Tastes So Sweet

Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet

Feel the ties left tightly bound
All that's locked up in your mind
I'm gonna take my time
See how slowly you unwind

So come on feel you away
Another up your face
It's a dangerous game
But if you wanna play
Put your trust in me

Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet

You look so perfect lying there
Oh it hurts me just to stare
It's more than I can bare
Wanna touch you everywhere

So baby come to me
You give me what I need
You're my only desire
And I need to get high
You know what you do for me

Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
Your love, it tastes so sweet
