

Band De Soleil, Shadow On The Wall

Band De Soleil
Redemption Dream
Shadow On The Wall
You'd think after all this time I'd finally have my life together what's wrong with staying home and talking to that shadow on the wall I'm not the type that can stay home and pay attention to these feelings sometimes just to be sure you're still alive you for to keep on moving on and on and on

But if the music plays I'll never be too far away
If the music plays I'll never be too far away because I'm still running, I'm still running I'm still running away

Sometimes I get so restless, I get so wound up and I get so bored I go out looking for some sign of life for trouble to take on

But I don't have all night Come on make your move but don't get too comfortable hand be down my walking shoes

And if the music plays I'll never be too far away because I'm still running
I'm still running
I'm still running away

A little taste of this a little drop of that and I'll be doing fine anything that I can do, anything that I can find to keep me off my mind and I'm still running
