

BANKS, Fuck With Myself

I got a diamonds and feather
Give me 3 reason why we ain;t together
I push my body through the floor [?]
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else

You're on the corner waiting for my love
I put 2 walls behind you just lean on
You're gonna need them cause I stood you up
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else

Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else
It's all love
I used to care what you think about me
It's all love
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else

I caught you fishing through the fodder
This whole relationship is under water
You're facing ages in yout third strike
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else

Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else
It's all love
I used to care what you think about me
It's all love
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else

I used to have a nickel ffor what you say, baby
Your words would turn me in the third degree
Now, baby, look what it's come to Cause me love is the one
My love is the one

Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else
It's all love
I used to care what you think about me
It's all love
Cause I fuck with myself more than anybody else
