

BANKS, Holding Back

Oh love
Love is holding back
I know I've done you wrong
Did I say too much?
Drown my sorrows, called you up
When the truth is tough
Honesty may not be enough

Cuz love is holding back
I know I've done you wrong
Love
Leave me I'm alright
I'll see you in the morning
And loving is holding back
And I have been in mourning

Never told you that I seen the light
You know I push it cuz I go too far
Something bout what you said in the morning
Never gave me a warning

And while you walkin free
I stay in the middle unaccompanied
Missing you a little, wont you come and see?
I wrote you a melody, cant you see that?

Cuz ooh our loving babe
I know you wont admit it but we're something babe
All I want to do is get you loved and laid
I wrote you a melody, cant you see that?

Love
Love is holding back
I know I've done you wrong
Did I say too much?
Love
Leave me I'm alright
I'll see you in the morning
And loving is holding back
And I have been in mourning

I remember when you locked us out
We had to climb in through the window, how Lifted me up, was on the second floor and
I always love that story

And while you talk to me
You don't think I listen but I do you see
Words are never bitter cuz your voice so sweet
Your voice is like a melody, cant you see that?

Baby don't be afraid
Not every conversation is a new grenade
All I want to do is get you loved and laid
I wrote you a melody, cant you see that?

Love
Love is holding back
I know I've done you wrong
Did I say too much?
Love
Leave me I'm alright
I'll see you in the morning
And loving is holding back

And I have been in mourning

Anything

I want you more than all time
I want you more than moonlight
I want you more than sunshine
I want you more than water
I want you more than high tides
So don't you say that our time is up
Our time aint up

Cuz I want you

I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you

Give me love
Give me love
Give me love
Give me love
Give me love, yeah

I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you

Give me love
Give me love
Give me love
Give me love
Give me love, yeah
(Give me love, yeah)

Love
Love is holding back
I know I've done you wrong
Love
Leave me I'm alright
I'll see you in the morning
And loving is holding back
And I have been in mourning

Love is holding back
(Oh na na na na na na)
(Oh na na na na na na)
(Oh na na na na na na)
Leave me I'm alright
I'll see you in the morning
And loving is holding back
And I have been in mourning
