Barbra Streisand, If I Didn't Love You

If I didn't love you
I'd be safe from harm
I would never find myself
Lost inside your arms
If I didn't love you
I'd never feel the pain
Of sunny days without you
Drowning in the rain
If I didn't love you
If I didn't love you
Peace would rule the day
All the dark and out
Would surely go away
If I didn't love you
I wouldn't pay the cost
Of living every endless day
If our love is lost
If I didn't love you
If I didn't love you
And yet you make me breathless
At the way you move
I never knew that I
Could ever love the way we do
I don't know how you reached me
In that place in my heart
Belonging to
Only you
If I didn't love you
I wouldn't lose control?
The danger loving brings a word
Never touch my soul
If I didn't love you
Perhaps I wouldn't die
If you should ever say to me
"I'm sorry, goodbye"
If I didn't love you
How can there be music
In the way you touch?
I can't believe that somehow
I believe in you so much
Now you've come and taught me
How to give you my heart
And make me feel at last
That the end will never start
You're the only reason
I'm not afraid to fall
For if I didn't love you?
If I didn't love you
I wouldn't love at all?
Oh, oo, oh, oo, oh, ooo
Hm, mm, mm
