

Barry Manilow, As Sure As I'm Standin' Here

Sometimes I look at you Sad and so beautiful Young and alone
And so far from home
Much too much for you Much too soon
Empty eyes gazin' all the moon

As sure as I'm standing here
You'll never have to be afraid
As sure as I'm standin' here I'll try and help you find your way
Oh I swear, as sure as I'm standing here You'll never need to be alone You've got my word
as sure as I'm standing here

sometimes I look at you sleepin' like a baby your hair combed with sunlight full of sweet days you say nothin' matters say you know how it is did you think it would be like this?

But sure as standin' here
