

Baumer, Come On, Feel It

You come to me and just say that you've fallen out of love
It was fun but now you got your life to be thinking of Well I got my life
And I don't think that I have the time
To be around when you come weeping having changed your mind
I don't want you now

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on

You think you got it figured out
And this will sue us both
The answers simple and easy
Just like the numbers show
Well we were meant to be
But meant to be for just how long?
Just do what feels right
Cause what is right now feels so wrong
I don't want you now

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it
Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on

Come on and feel it
Come on and feel it

Come on
Come on and feel it
Come on ..yea
