

Bayje, Impossible

I can see you lookin oh baby and i know how bad you want to be with me in your mind you're wishing that you can take me but you're holding back like you're afraid of me just one night to be with you i would show you how i break it on down we could get lost, wear my hair down so many possibilites, one chance baby take my hand cause it's not so compilcated when i say it's not impossible to love me want to share my life
promise i'm gonna get you right it's not impossible and you'll see i want to share my life want to love you all right it's not impossible
it's not impossible
nothings impossible
i'm not impossible what's the reason you keep me waiting it's obvious you can't take your eyes off me it's getting late and you're making me impatient are you afraid that you might fall for me? just this night to be with you i would have you open on it, missin my kiss, lookin for me, tellin your friends but it's not that difficult, at all want to break the ice, lets make nice so you can do is try, please believe
boy i love you all right
it's not impossible
it's not impossible
nothings impossible
i'm not impossible
it's not impossible
it's not impossible
nothings impossible
i'm not impossible
want your love all right
want to share my life promise i'm gonna get you right
i want to share my life,
want your love you're all right
it's not impossible
it's not impossible
it's not impossible
it's not impossible
nothings impossible
