

Bear Hands, Giants

Two Words!

Rock, chalk, shot a jayhawk

Never been to jail 'cus I never get caught

I got smarts

Dark, dangerous dog, ODB got it right from the start

You got one and you changed from crazy to calm

I've been awake for days in the dusk and the dawn

And you're loving me whether you want to or not

Well I want you for sure, I am loving you more

I am loving you more /3x

Who heard

What, no, right from the start

Go sell that shit somewhere farther from the heart

Running and running and running and stop

Come on we both knew this thing would be hard

I see art, you see class

You think, you ask

You say "Darling am I a chore?"

I said I know you love me, I am loving you more

I am loving you more /3x

Pick up the perfect card

Slip into smiling wildly

After the rest have gone

We become beyond timeless

Give you everything that I have ever owned

Soon I will have bought us up a house and home

Up on the seventh floor

I know you love me I am loving you more

I am loving you more /3x

I am loving you more /4x
