

Bebe Rexha, Nothing At All

I try to run away
But your [?] keeps pulling me in
As soon as I get away
You say something smart

Yeah, you wanna fuck around
I'm tryna settle down
You wanna fuck around

I really wanna move you and give my all
But I'm dying to hold you
Without you, you know that I want to
But you never pick me up when I fall
The hardest thing to do, darling, is nothing at all

I wanna see your game
Want you to need me, baby
You tryna use me, babe
Been tryna lose me, baby
You wanna fuck around
I'm tryna settle down
You [?] fuck around

I really wanna move you and give my all
But I'm dying to hold you
Without you, you know that I want to
But you never pick me up when I fall
The hardest thing to do, darling, is nothing at all
Is nothing at all

I just want the real thing, yeah yeah
Do you want the same thing as me?
I don't want another fling
