

Bebe Rexha, The Lucky Ones

[Verse 1]

Lightning strikes, once in your life
If this is love, I'm rolling the dice
Let it rain cause we're on fire
And I know, you know it

[Pre-Chorus]

I never wanna see your heart happy with another
I wanna be the only one looking in your eyes
I never wanna see your heart happy with another
I never wanna let you go, so hold me close tonight

[Chorus]

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but we'll keep burning like the sun
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Paradise is laying right here with us

[Verse 2]

You and I, wrapped in my bed
Lost in time, as good as it gets
Close your eyes and make a wish
Like we're golden

[Pre-Chorus]

I never wanna see your heart happy with another
I wanna let you go, so hold me close tonight

[Chorus]

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but we'll keep burning like the sun
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Paradise is laying right here with us

[Bridge]

I never wanna see your heart happy with another
I'm never gonna let you go, ever cause you're mine
I never wanna see your heart happy with another
I wanna let you go, so hold me close tonight

[Chorus]

We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
The stars could fall but we'll keep burning like the sun
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Paradise is laying right here with us
We are, we are, we are the lucky ones
Paradise is laying right here with us
