

Becky G, They Ain't Ready

I'd rather be than your eternity
for your sun
is all of me

they rather see me down and that was showin'
you don't care
they don't wanna see me whit you they want you for they self they don't wanna see us try to make it work I know they waitin' on one of us to get hurt they rather see you sobbin' when you're fallin' apart telling you things like I 'ma break your heart they rather see you do me wrong you waste my time they rather see me crying in the sweetness shine but I stay way up stuck whit you until we gotta wait up

this love
they whit me ad you like a lay-up and they hatin' can't wait for us to break up they ain't ready for our love
