

Bee Gees, I Lay Down And Die

Only last night when your arms held me tight you told me you thought our love could last forever, forever
I was the one that gave you all the love when I thought that our love could last forever, forever
I lay down and die
The whole world joins in
And everyone cries as teardrops begin
I lay down and die
And when darkness falls can't seem right there at all
I lay down and die
The whole world joins in
I lay down and die. The teardrops begin.
I lay down and die. And die. And die.
I lay down and die. The whole world joins in I lay down and die and the teardrops begin
I lay down and die and I lay down and die
