

Beer Coaster, Enlighting

I'm writtin' a letter,
about my empty fucked up head.
It ain't gettin' better,
I ripped the last two ones to shreds.
I don't wanna believe it. Save me!
That my pen can get so hard.
And I wanted to beat it. Save me!
Again I landed on the start.

Could get so hard...
On the start...
Could get so hard...

We're stuck here together.
It's me, myself, the page and I.
I'll write this forever.
Unlike myself the page won't lie.
Am I loosin' direction? Save me!
Cause I feel like wastin' time.
I just wanted perfection. Save me!
So again I lost my mind!

Got no time for this explanation!
What I need is some education!
Stop these thoughts of sweet procreation!
Part of me's loosin' gravitation, so...
I gotta shove it so low.
One day it has to glow.
My brain is workin' so slow today...

Prepare the conclusion I was so hardly fightin'
The thoughts of confusion fade...
I've had an enlightening!

Got no time for this explanation!
What I need is some education!
Stop these thoughts of sweet procreation!
Part of me's loosin' gravitation, so...
I gotta shove it so low.
One day it has to glow.
My brain is workin' so slow today...
