

Before The Dawn, Heaven

[music: Tuomas Saukkonen, words:Tuomas Saukkonen/Panu Willman] repeating questions to make some sense, fragile words could offer great defence against myself and the creature inside, it's taking me over again this evil inside me, the cause of my fall is giving nothing and taking all failure in re-creation of heaven and it was all along right before my eyes already in hell, no reason to die by means of violence I sacrifice my own flesh and blood again for them
