

Before You Breathe, Follow You

Where You lead I'll follow
I'm seeking only You
When You speak I'll listen closely
I want to worship You
I've come to worship You
And I will follow only You
And I will run towards Your light
And I'm reaching out for You
Lord on Your truth I set my sight
Where You go please take me
Whether near or far
When You move Your Spirit calls me
Even through the dark
Your Word will guide my heart
So take my hand and let me see
The wonders of Your majesty
My heart sings Your wondrous praise always
Oh I'll follow You
I will follow only You
