

Behemoth, Prometherion (From In Absentia Dei)

hark!
the all prophetic incantation I was here before the beginning came and I am the one to come after all myths and gods remain I shall beyond the end ov days

I pity Thee not oh self despising slave Thy self contempt filled with disgust cast aside Thy scorn ov the earth until I lay my wrath upon the Thee I shall...

eat the weak!
fuck the flesh!
slit the throat!
consume the dead!

lead: Nergal
lead: Seth

drowned in empty black attempt to embrace my universe
I learnt how to crawl through knives and thorns drowned in alienation
I drag myself through the mud hatred injected, abhorrence accepted when mankind fall prey
I shall arise!

lead: Nergal

and Great Dragon from my mouth emerged and all the treasures ov this world belong to me in the sweetest inorganic embrace ov my devotee I pledge my dagger unto Thee blessed with the promethean rain tranquility I may find in bottomless pits I shall carry this darkness on my back

'till the day all the suns eclipse I shall...

eat the weak!
fuck the flesh!
slit the throat!
consume the dead!
