

Belinda Carlisle, Nobody Owns Me

Nobody owns me
I don't wanna be anybody's fool
No one can make me do
What I don't want to do - no, no
Nobody owns me
Nobody but you

I'm gonna follow my heart
Wherever it leads oooh
I'm not afraid of my destiny - oooh
There's another point of view
It takes me back to you

I wanna dream my dreams
And live them too - oooh
Do a million things before I'm though - oooh
There's another side of me
That only you can see
