

Belle & Sebastian, (I Believe In) Travellin' Light

Shimmering travellin' light, echoing love at first sight
Glimmering, Glistening, banishing the darkest night
Waiting for travellin' light

Though the sun has yet to appear
Inkling faint perception is near
Bloodied, battered in the dew
Leaves and trees are calling you
Waiting for travellin' light

Shimmering, travelling by
Magical waves just under the sky
It knows no time, it knows no bounds
Coming clear beneath the clouds
Destination here and now
I behold travellin' light

Shimmering, travelling by
Magical waves just under the sky
She knows no time, she knows no bounds
Waves of light are travelling
Cloak of night unravelling
I believe in travellin' light

Shimmering, travellin' light, echoing love at first sight
Glimmering, glistening, I'll see her tomorrow night
Waiting for my travellin' light
