

Bellx1, Tongue

This one's for you
This one's for me
This one's for you
What must I be?
I've got a nervous feeling over you
I got someone to love me, oh so true
But who am I fooling
I like airline food
I need to feel whole
I need to feel young again
I need to be bold
And start using my tongue again

They can laugh as they cry
They can cut till I bleed
But I ain't losing
'Cause this one's for me
This one's for you
This one's for me
This one's for you
Tell me what must I be for you?
I've got a nervous feeling over you
I've got someone who loves me, oh so true
