

Benson Boone, Cry

I tried to hide it through the silence
While I played along
I'm welling up behind my eyelids
when i'm holding on to the rage
So badly I hate him
And I wish that all of—

I really hate the way you think that you can get away
By blaming all your stupid problems on your mental state
I'm tired
Of burnt out lies

You think you know me
But you hardly even know yourself
I bite my tongue
And let you think I only wish you well
I don't
I know you know it

And I'm tired of letting someone get the best of me so go ahead and
CRY
CRY
Go ahead and ruin someone else's life
CRY
CRY
Go bug somebody else so I can sleep at night

You're more...
Narcissistic than anybody in Hollywood
You're not a misfit don't keep saying you're misunderstood
I'm tired
Oh I'm so tired
Oh
Mmm
But maybe you're the honest type
And it's been me the whole damn time
But I should really try to calm my mind
And see things from your side
Or maybe you can

CRY
CRY
Go ahead and ruin someone else's life
CRY
CRY
Go bug somebody else so I can sleep at night
CRY
CRY
Go ahead and ruin someone else life
CRY
CRY

And I'm tired of letting someone get the best of me so go ahead and
CRY
CRY
Go ahead and ruin someone else's
