

Benson Boone, My Greatest Fear

Got a lot on my mind
That keeps me up at night
I'm tossing and turning thinking that my life's gone to waste
Just filling up empty space
And if there's a God
I don't know where he's been
We used to talk but haven't spoken since early May Guess he ain't in LA
But you're here now
And that makes it better somehow
Ooh
Oh I'm terrified
Of the day that I die
I'll lie there all alone
No flowers on my bones
Of all the things that I
Been afraid to lose
My greatest fear of all
Is losing you
When I lose my voice
Singing all your songs
I get paranoid
About the way that you've been holding on Like you're halfway gone
I'm scared to take another picture of you
Cause I'm scared to have another thing that I could lose
Oh dear
Who am I without you here?
But you're here now
And that makes it better somehow
Ooh
Oh I'm terrified
Of the day that I die
I'll lie there all alone
No flowers on my bones
Of all the things that I
Been afraid to lose
My greatest fear of all
Is losing you
Is losing you
My greatest fear of all is losing you all the things that I
Been afraid to lose
My greatest fear of all
Is losing you
Is losing you
I'm losing you
I'm losing you
OH I'M LOSING YOU
Don't know how the broken pieces
Fit together if you're leaving
So don't go don't go
I would take your hand if I could reach it
Pull you back but you're already gone
You're gone gone gone
