Berlin, You don't know

We cross the street You hold my hand Afraid to let go And if I walked away And left you there Would you know why You are the answer now You don't know You can be everything You don't know You won't believe it now You don't know anymore You are the reason and the rhyme We walk into your room A mirror's caught your reflection You walk away and call to me To fill in the frame You are the only one You don't know You are the fire of love You don't know You can believe it now You don't know anymore You are the reason and the rhyme I walk this road You follow me I don't know why And if I walked away And left you there Would you know why?
