

Beth Hart, If God Only Knew

Ain't no words to say the way
I feel It's like a bad dream but it's real
It seems like only yesterday
We were talkin' in the most familiar way
Now everybody knows the way I am
They all see right through my show
I aimed so high now I'm so low
I'm all dressed up got nowhere to go
If God only knew how I loved that man
I would have died for you
I guess he'll never understand
I loved you right or wrong it was you all along heaven knows
That it's true hard as it's been
I'd do it all over again
Say goodbye to dreamin'
It's only water in my hands
So when you see me walkin' down that street
Don't ignore me if I speak
'Cause I knew you better than anyone else
I loved ya more than you could ever know yourself
