

Beth Hart, Just A Little Hole

JUST LITTLE HOLE BETH HART

To remember or to forget it could you ever laugh out loud while you cry
It will own you & you can't let it While it holds you you can't even try You're so unsatisfied
You're so damn petrified
You ain't got nothin' no
you ain't got nothin' to prove

CHORUS

Just a little heartache

just a little hole

just an itchy finger

& nobody knows

just a little heartache

Somethin' for the soul

Fingers on the trigger

& nobody knows

what she knows

I Got a secret & how you dread it

I should have known by the lonely look in your eye

You made a promise & never kept it you didn't even tell me good-bye

You're so unsatisfied

There's no more tears to cry

You ain't got nothin' no

you ain't got nothin' to prove

CHORUS

In December I got your letter

& by the springtime

they let me know you were gone

If I only loved you better

I'd see you smile again

but what's done is done
