

Beth Hart, Little Heartbreak Girl

A little heartbreak girl
Crushed them string or pearls
And watch 'em cry down the kitchen drain
With your whiskey cup
Fast talking, giddy up
You got a fire that could scare the rain

It's a long life
No matter what them losers say
So get it wrong or right
It doesn't matter either way

Little heartbreak girl
You're on your own
Little heartbreak girl
Blow up the phone
Little heartbreak girl
You trashed your plans
Little heartbreak girl
Don't need a man
Little heartbreak girl
You're gon', you're gonna conquer the world

You little heartbreak girl
It's a lonely world
I know these days ain't been sweet on you
With your heart-shaped box
And all those party rocks
And all the games you've been trying to lose

It's a lotta road
And it's a longer way down
But there's a house of hope
Where all the boys gather 'round

Little heartbreak girl
You're on your own
Little heartbreak girl
Stronger than stone
Little heartbreak girl
You trashed your plans
Little heartbreak girl
Don't need a man
Little heartbreak girl
They want you back
Little heartbreak girl
Don't give a crap
Little heartbreak girl
You're gon', gonna conquer the world

Gonna conquer the world

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven
She can't wait to climb to heaven
Spread her wings and watch her fly away
She's much more than flesh and bones
So tell the heart she's coming home
Tell it now before it's all too late

Little heartbreak girl
You're on your own
Blow up the phone

They want you back
Don't give a crap
You trashed your plans
Don't need a man
Just a little hole
Little heartbreak girl
Something for the soul
Little heartbreak girl
You're gon', you're gon', gonna conquer the world

You're gonna conquer the world
You're gonna conquer the world
