Beth Hart, Ringing

Ringing

[Beth Hart]

Album: Immortal (1996)

Rollin' out of bed a little heavy Sickened from the deadness in my head Beggin' for a break I'm tired of trippin' Sounds loud enough to wake the dead

Hear 'em ringing on ringing ringing on As if it's not enough From the dusk till dawn They keep ringing on

Stumble to the mr. coffee maker Sip a little joe and lift me off Shakin' from the screams of hurry hurry Smackin' on the prime I'm way behind

Feel me ringing on yes I'm tingling on As if it's not enough Sift the dusk till dawn and I'll be Ringing on

Rollin' into bed a little heavy Bounded by the sound that blows my mind Sister cryin' bleeding worry worries Mother mary god she sends her sign

Hear her ringing on yes she's singing on I'll give her all my love All are dreaming on in her black rust song Ringing ringing on ringing ringing on

All are dreaming on In her black rust song
