When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
She ain't the average chick, she the baddest chick
She ain't the average chick, she the baddest chick
E-e-everybody know that face
Even with her head low, they still know that shape
When she come through the club people take they place
Chicks throwing handcuffs
Cuz they knowing they man ain't safe
Cuz she the one switching up flows
If it's 4 door, 2 gotta go
Chicks like, 'what kinda jeans is those?'
And fellas watching like, 'please get low'
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
She ain't the average chick, she the baddest chick

Some ain't gotta clue 'til they hear me spit
Ah chu I spew cuz yo girl is sick
Is it the change or the hips you can't tell, but you know it's thick
Cuz she the one switching up flows
If it's 4 door, 2 gotta go
Chicks like, 'what kinda jeans is those?'
And fellas watching like, 'please get low'
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up

And this is for the people on the, the, the block

For this type of girl it's not that hard
You see her cuz she's too far gone
They only praying, pray for her downfall
Why they gotta be so envious
Doing what it do fit to be a plus
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
Back up, back up, back up

She ain't yo average chick, back up
This is for the, the, the club
And this is for the people on the, the, the block
When you see that girl coming, back up
She ain't yo average chick, back up
