Beyoncé, Should Have

Should Have
ou're all alone
But, I did this
I got no one else to blame
You didn't know I was a risk
And it's such a cryin' shame
How you gave me all of you
And wanted nothing else from me
Tried to make some time for you
But all I made you was lonely
I couldn't see, but now I know
That I acted selfishly
I should have known I let you down
And caused you so much misery
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
I should have been there
I should have been there
I should have been there
I should have been there
All of the times
You used to cry
Because I would let you down
I'm losing time
I should've tried a little more to be around
But i didn't know that you were hurting
I was just too blind
Only thing I know for certain
Are that you are never fine
I couldn't see, but now I know
That I acted selfishly
I should have known I let you down
And caused you so much misery
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
I should have been there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I should have been there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I should have been there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I should have been there
I'm filled with regret
I'm gonna tip
And soak myself in misery
Now, in your life
I'll take more time
No more yearning without me
But it hurts to think of you all by yourself
And now I see
And I apologize for all the times
I left you home waiting for me
I couldn't see, but now I know
That I acted selfishly
I should have known I let you down
And caused you so much misery
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed
Forever to bleed

I'm gonna be there
(I'm gonna be there)
I'm gonna be there
(I'm gonna be there)
I'm gonna be there
(I'm gonna be there)
I'm gonna be there
(I'm gonna be there)
I'm gonna be there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I'm gonna be there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I'm gonna be there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
I'm gonna be there
Oh oh oh oh oh.....
