

Biffy Clyro, Justboy

Every once in a while I see your face, I'm feeling half the man
Then you cup your hands, you throw me away, I'm under
But then everything beneath me fades, I'm feeling half the man
Then you shut your eyes, you close me away, I'm under

I'm alone with these thoughts of mine, people look and tell me justboy
I don't believe in anything, that's the message in your eyes (in your eyes)
I don't believe in anything, that's the message in your eye

I have tried so hard to leave this place, it leaves me under hand
I want to feel your breath here with me, and kiss you...

I'm alone with these thoughts of mine, people look and tell me justboy
I don't believe in anything, that's the message in your eyes (in your eyes)
I don't believe in anything, that's the message in your eye

I am (hopin), through the (dark clouds), light shall break and bring a bright sky
I am hopin, through the (dark clouds), light shall break and bring a bright sky
Light shall break and bring a bright sky
