

Bill Anderson, I'm Leaving It Up to You

I'm leavin' it all up to you you decide what you gonna do
Now do you want my love or are we through
That's why I'm leavin' it up...

[guitar]

I've got my heart in my hand but there's so much that I don't understand
And baby I don't know what I've done wrong
You know I worship the ground you walked on
That's why I'm leavin' it up...
